

Is retirement on your horizon? FollowMe™ Health can keep you covered when group coverage ends.

As you know, preparing for retirement is exciting, but can also be costly. Did you know that in 2013 the average Canadian household with members aged 55 to 64 spent $1,680 to cover health and dental expenses not covered by their provincial plan?¹ Right now, an employee health plan may be helping you with these costs.

However, it's an unfortunate fact that 65% of employers do not provide benefits to retirees.² That's where the FollowMe Health Plan comes in.

Your acceptance is guaranteed if you apply within 60 days of your group health coverage ending. That means no medical questionnaire or exam!³
